Notes:

(Note1) The forecasts for the financial results for the fiscal period ending May 2022 and November 2022 is the current forecasts calculated based on the assumptions written in the Attachment “Assumptions Underlying Forecasts of the Financial Results for the Fiscal Period Ending May 2022 and November 2022.” Therefore, actual operating revenues, operating income, ordinary income, net income, distributions per unit (excluding optimal payable distribution) and optimal payable distribution per unit may change as a result of a difference from an assumption. Thus, the forecast information does not guarantee the amount of distributions.

(Note2) This forecast information may be revised if it is anticipated it will differ by a particular degree from current forecast information.

(Note3) The values are rounded down to the nearest specified unit and percentage is rounded to one decimal place.

2. Reasons for the Revisions

Operating revenues will decline as explained in the release today, non-operating expenses are expected to increase as a result of the review of financing-related costs due to the deterioration of financing conditions in the sector where the Investment Corporation operates. Given a difference of more than 5% from the forecast of distributions per unit for the 12th fiscal period ending May 2022 and the 13th fiscal period ending November 2022 due to these factors, the Investment Corporation has decided to revise the forecasts for financial results and distributions.
